NEVILS NEWS

BY MISS MAUDE WHITE

A hook worm survey has recently been conducted throughout our school. We were very much pleased with the results. According to the report received from the state health department, only 42 per cent were positive cases. Last year's report showed 66 per cent positive. We are very proud of this improvement. We are planning a remedy to the hook worm patients as soon as we can communicate with the proper officials.

MISS SNIPES IS BACK WITH US

Miss Susie Snipes, the Rosenwald helper from G. T. C., who has been assisting the members of our faculty with their regular work, is now with us. She was not with us last week because of some work she had to do at the college. We appreciate having Miss Snipes with us very much and it is very beneficial to the teachers to have an able assistant always ready.

The party was given in honor of Mrs. G. B. Bonen, Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Mrs. R. E. Anderson, Mrs. Durrell Rushing and Mrs. Grady Rushing. Mrs. Britt had expected Mrs. Hudson Godbee and Mrs. Ivy Thibault, but they were absent. It was reported that the occasion was a very delightful one.

SOCIALS

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Avery and attractive children, Georgia Belle and Julian, were visiting friends and relatives in Adrian and Omega, Georgia, during the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Joyce Hammock returned with them and will be their guest for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dan Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. LaDoris Anderson and son, LaWayne, and Misses Maude and Lucille White were visiting in Savannah Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Martin and sons, Clyde and Hollis, J. W. Donaldson, S. Donaldson, spent the holidays in Augusta with Mr. and Mrs. Pearce and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beasley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nesmith and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Nesmith Sunday.

Misses Leila and Leslie White and Miss Edna Nevils were visiting in Claxton Saturday.

Misses Lila Mae and Katrina Nesmith of the Teachers College were the guests of their parents during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Mitchell and family of Pooler and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks White and family of Statesboro were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White, Thursday.

Prof. W. C. Britt, superintendent of Snellville High School of Gwinnett county and Mr. R. W. Britt of Atlanta were the week end guests of Supt. and Mrs. H. H. Britt. While here they went hunting.

Mrs. Katherine Norman and attractive daughters, Martha and Mary, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin, of Savannah.

PORTAL NEWS

Mrs. Herbert Franklin, John and Jappy Franklins of Atlanta spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with Mr. Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Trapnell returned to their home in Tate, Sunday after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Trapnell and other relatives. Mr. Boatwright of Sylvania spent the week end here with his family.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR JUDGE OF CITY COURT

I am a candidate in the special election to be held on December 8, 1937, for Judge of the City Court of Statesboro for the unexpired term of Judge Leroy Cowart. If elected I promise to honestly and impartially administer the law.

Your vote and support will be appreciated.

CLEVE JONES

FOR JUDGE OF CITY COURT

In a previous notice I stated that I would be in the race for the Judgeship of the City Court of Statesboro when the special election was called. The Ordinary has called this election for Wednesday, December 8th. It is impossible to see more than a small fraction of the voters by the date named. I will appreciate very much your vote on the day of the election. If elected Judge I will resign as Mayor of the City of Statesboro on January 1, 1938, as I have already stated in my first notice.

Respectfully,
J. L. Renfro

FOR JUDGE OF CITY COURT

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Judge of the City Court of Statesboro in a special election called for December 8th, 1937. I have practiced law here by fifteen years and I have never before asked the people to elect me to any office neither have I received any income from one. Both of my opponents in this race have held public office for a number of years and have enjoyed a good income from same, and I think it should be fair and right that I should have public office for a while. I have a family to raise and my opponents have not this obligation; I need the income from this office and will appreciate it more than anyone else.

If elected, I assure you that I shall perform the duties of said office fairly, impartially and to the best of my ability.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Bulloch 4-H Boys Win Places In Pig Show

STOCK JUDGING TEAM MADE UP OF LOY EVERITT, JOHN W. DAVIS AND WILLIAM BRANNEN. SCORED 555 POINTS OUT OF A POSSIBLE 600 TO WIN.

Bulloch county 4-H club boys went to town and carried their pigs and all good clubbers should do brought the bacon back.

The club boys that won pigs in a contest sponsored by Sears, Roebuck and Company, Savannah, during the late summer carried them back after feeding them four months to compete with the other 56 clubbers from Georgia and South Carolina in a show and judging contest.

The five months old pigs exhibited by the eight Bulloch boys weighed from 60 to 220 pounds. William Brannen had reserved grand champion, the grand champion going to Bryan county, and won 100 purebred chickens. William's entry was a five months old black Poland China gilt that weighed 220 pounds.

Montrose Graham's Spotted Poland China gilt won for him 100 purebred chickens. Malcolm Simmons exhibited a black Poland China gilt that also won 100 chickens, and Elvin Anderson with a black Poland China gilt that weighed close to 220 pounds also won 100 chickens.

The Bulloch county stock judging team scored 555 points out of a possible 600 to win the contest. Loy Everitt, William Brannen and John W. Davis were on the team. Each of these clubbers got a prize $3 in trade at the Sears, Roebuck and Company store.

William Brannen demonstrated that he knew his pigs as well as how to grow them out but scoring 195 points out of a possible 200 points in the judging contest, William received an additional $3 in trade for this achievement.

Boys showing pigs from Bulloch were Loy, William, Elvin, John W. Brannen, Malcolm, M. P. Martin, Jr., and Grover Woodrum.

Brooklet Wins Double Header From Collins

The Brooklet High School boys' and girls' basketball teams won a double-header in the gymnasium at Brooklet Saturday night from the Collins High School team.

The girls' game was won by Brooklet by a score of 16 to 15 in a close game throughout the four periods. The boys score was 17 to 15.

In both games the winner was in doubt the entire game until the last few seconds when the whistle blew it found Brooklet in the lead.

Coach Pafford changed his entire line-up at the half.

THREE SALES CONDUCTED BY BRYON DYER, COUNTY AGENT STATESBORO LIVESTOCK COMMISSION AND BULLOCH STOCK

SELL 2323 HOGS AND 425 HEAD OF CATTLE.

Three livestock sales here this week sold 2323 hogs and 425 head of cattle this week in the largest livestock week ever recorded in Statesboro.

The three sales were conducted by the county agent, the Statesboro Livestock Commission, and the Bulloch Stock Yards.

Monday, County Agent Bryon Dyer sold 113 hogs cooperatively which brought farmers $1464.19. Tops brought $7.10 a hundred. George Mallard sold 18 head which weighed 3320 pounds, L. J. Swinson sold 30 head weighing 5905 and L. O. Barnes sold 11 head weighing 2055 pounds. Of the 113 hogs sold 90 were tops.

Tuesday at the Bulloch Stock Yard 710 hogs and 225 head of cattle were auctioned. Tops brought from $7.25 to $7.50 according to quality. Number Two brought from $6.75 to $7.10. Number Three from $6.25 to $6.45, and Number Four and Five from $6.35 to $7.00. Feeders sold from $7.00 to $9.25 for the best. A hundred cattle brought $4.50 to $5.50 a hundred pounds. Native cattle brought from $3.50 to $4.50 and the top steer brought $6.00. A large number of buyers were present and the bidding was spirited.

Wednesday, the Statesboro Livestock Commission Company sold 1800 hogs and 400 cattle. Several lots of corn fed top pigs brought $7.50 a hundred pounds. M. H. Hogan of Dublin brought 2 cars of hogs and one car of cattle. Two cars of hogs were shipped on an order. Hogs were trucked out. The sale lasted twelve hours, beginning at ten-thirty Wednesday morning and continuing into the night with 275 farmers participating.

Work Will Begin On Two New Projects At SGT Dec. 10th

BRAY AND COMPANY OF VALDOSTA AND HORNBUCKLE AND COLE OF ATLANTA ARE THE SUCCESSFUL BIDDERS AT LETTING.

Work on two new projects at the South Georgia Teachers College, a girls residence hall and a waterworks system will be started December 10, according to President Marvin S. Pittman.

In the recent P. W. A. lettings to the University System of Georgia the South Georgia Teachers College was awarded four projects, a laboratory school, a library, a girls dormitory, and a waterworks system. The projects were advertised and bids were to be received in the office of the University System in Atlanta last Friday and Saturday. Contracts on two of the projects were let but the contracts on the laboratory school and library were not. According to Dr. Pittman who was in Atlanta at the time of the letting these two projects will be re-advertised and contracts let on January 30 in Atlanta.

Present plans call for the library to be located on a spot now occupied by the Science Hall. The science building will have to be moved and preparations are being made this week to get the work started.

Bray and Company of Valdosta were the successful bidders on the new girls residence hall with a base bid of $49,168.00. Hornbuckle and Cole of Atlanta were the successful bidders on the waterworks system with a base bid of $13,500.00. Work on these two projects will begin December 10.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lee Celebrate Golden Anniversary Sunday

HAVE LIVED ENTIRE MARRIED LIFE IN BROOKLET. THEY ARE AMONG BROOKLET'S FEW FIRST CITIZENS WHO ARE STILL LIVING.

BROOKLET—Next Sunday, December 12, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Lee, Sr., will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary from three o'clock to six o'clock in the afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Lee and Mary Levaughn Morgan were married in 1887—fifty years ago.

Their entire married life has been spent in Brooklet. They are among the few "charter" citizens of the town who are living today.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee are both held in the highest esteem by the entire community. They are charter members of the Brooklet Methodist Church and for a number of years Mr. Lee was superintendent of the Sunday School and a member of the Board of Stewards. He is a prohibitionist in the strictest sense of the word. He is still active, works his garden and truck patch and in fishing season makes it his business to be acceptable in the sale.

FARM TO FARM

Why not make certain that the peacocks pay its keep every year, asks Outland Bohler. He figures that the grove needs a winter cover crop of some legume like Austrian winter peas or vetch. By interplanting some peas or vetch in these legumes Mr. Bohler has a pasture in the late winter and early spring. Then in February he thinks by planting the ground to lespedeza he can have a summer legume over the grove and also have a summer pasture.

Growing turkeys out is not so hard. But growing them out and developing a special market for them that will command a premium on the prices received is an art. J. A. Bunce finds that this can be done each year and that it pays for the extra effort.

If a home is a place to live it should be fixed in the various manners necessary to make it attractive to the family and comfortable, declares W. O. Griner. His home has been equipped with some conveniences such as running water, cold and hot lights, indoor bath, etc., for some time. He is now adding a sun parlor and living room comparable to any found in most towns.

L. J. Swinson says that back porches can often be converted into sun porches or bed rooms that add to the comforts around the house by screening them I need using glass to cover about two-thirds of the wall.

SUGGESTIONS OFFERED BY COUNTY AGENT FOR BEST POULTRY RESULTS

County Agent Byron Dyer this week offered Bulloch county farmers a few suggestions for obtaining best results in hatching poultry.

He advised that flocks be blood-tested for pullorum disease and that the infected flocks be culled.

The county agent advised that, in the preparation of land for pasture, all timber, bushes, or undergrowth be cleared away during the winter. Also, if the soil is compact or covered with vegetation which would compete with the pasture plants, it should be plowed.

"While February and March are the best months for actual sowing of the seed," the agent declared, "the best results are obtained when the land is prepared early enough for the soil to become firm before seeding time."

The best soil for permanent pastures in this county, Mr. Dyer declared, is found in the low, moist areas commonly occupied by gallery bushes of large size. The pasture plants best adapted to this area are carpet grass, Dallas grass, lespedeza, and white clover.

OF BULLDOCH COUNTY

A grant received by South Georgia Teachers College from the Rosenwald Foundation has made available to Bulloch County Schools a group of helping teachers who are making special studies of the rural problems and who are helping the boys and girls in Bulloch County solve problems. A group of nine helpers are in the field at the present time, while twenty-one prospective helpers are taking regular college courses on the campus. During the spring and winter quarters, some of the students now doing regular college work will be in the field.

These helpers were chosen from a group of approximately 100 applicants for Rosenwald Scholarships last spring. Their records show that they have been superior Georgia teachers and possess qualities of leadership that will make them invaluable guides in shaping educational policies for Georgia's future. At the present time, Bulloch County Schools are benefited by their help.

The types of service rendered by the Rosenwald helpers in the schools of Bulloch County depend largely upon the requests made by the superintendents and teachers in the county. The helpers try to meet their demands in so far as they are capable. While a helper works in a school, she is considered a member of the regular faculty and works under the authority of the superintendent. Among the many types of service rendered, the following are probably most outstanding: Giving standard tests and analyzing results in reading, helping children build bookshelves and tables, teaching lessons in reading and geography, helping teachers to make a beginning in public school music, assisting on the playground, guidance in making friezes to make reading and geography more meaningful, making seat work, and helping to improve health conditions especially during the lunch period.

Three helpers have assisted the county supervisor, Jane Franseith, in all schools as she visited each one this month. As she observed geography and reading lessons taught by the regular teachers, the helpers taught lessons in music, art, geography, and reading in other rooms for demonstration purposes. Jane Quarterman gave special help in art. Mrs. William Deal in music, Richard Alexander gave help on the playground during the recess periods.

The other six helpers have been located in one school each. They have work in the following schools: Brooklet—Nell Winn; Lee-field—Maud Shaw; Nevills—Susie Snipes; Denmark—Miriam Burgess; Warnock—Marianne Castlen; Register—Myra Hall. Richard Alexander will begin work at Middleground next week.

Helpers were assigned to the schools mentioned above because the superintendents of these schools were the first to ask for helpers. More helpers will be available in January for the schools who ask for them.

Under the direction of County Superintendent H. P. Womack, the most outstanding achievements in the schools are in the fields of health, reading, social science, art, and music. Hookworm has been reduced from 60 to 40 per cent since last fall. The dentists are again examining the children's teeth free of charge. At least 80 per cent of the children are participating in supervised lunch periods in their rooms. Outdoor play programs are better organized. Teachers are guiding the children in purposeful reading of many books around chief centers of interest on levels suited to their needs. Almost all teachers are guiding children into channels of good music. All of these are being done to the end that children in Bulloch County will learn to live more successfully.

HEALTH IMPROVEMENT IN SCHOOLS OF BULLDOCH COUNTY

Another hook worm survey has just been completed in the schools of Bulloch County. The results of the survey indicate that the amount of hook worm infestation in the schools has been reduced from an average of 60 per cent to an average of 40 per cent since October, 1936. The great improvement shown has undoubtedly been due to a number of factors. The splendid cooperation among children, patrons, teachers, physicians, county nurse, WPA, and the State Health Department in doing the things which make it difficult for the hook worm to survive, has probably been the most important factor. Approximately 1500 children received treatment provided by the State Health Department. More than one thousand sanitary units were built. Sanitary disposal of human wastes prevents re-infection. The children made careful studies of the bad effects of hook worm on human life. The presented the information found in written compositions, drawings, reports, chapel programs, and Parent-Teacher programs. All of these and other activities have been instrumental in waging a war against the hook worm.

With the guidance and leadership of the health unit which will be organized in Bulloch County under the regulations of the Ellis Health Law, even greater progress can be made in the eradication of the hook worm and in solution of other health problems in future years.

"DO UNTO OTHERS AS YE WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU"

(An editorial submitted by C. M. Coalson, Minister of the First Baptist Church).

It might be salutary for the readers of the Bulloch Herald and all the people of our county to try once in a while to look at life through the eyes of the little boy or girl who, in our present economic set-up, is under-nourished and mostly unmind. Have you ever tried that sort of mind or heart exercise?

"The poor ye have with you always," some one will quote immediately. That's true, too. There is a certain fringe of society which is naturally improvident and will never take thoughtful enough to conserve its resources and make ready for certain emergencies. Our attitude toward even these unfortunate friends must be one of sympathy and particularly for the little children who are the chief sufferers from such impvidence. Bulloch County citizens can help these, so far as we know now, only by temporary relief made possible by the generosity of their hearts.

But aren't there numbers of people who are the victims, the innocent victims, of fell circumstance over which they have no control? Then what about them? Five decades hence, as we of this fortunate section look back, we shall wonder how we endured such an economic system which can let a family, which does sit and work as wisely as it can, suffer privations so terrible. It will not relieve the more fortunate than to remember that they were well provided for and did not have to bear the burdens of the disinherited. Perhaps we shall be saying then, "How was it possible that in an age of great abundance of the things which make life good and pleasant we permitted hosts of little children to go to school or to play with unsatisfied hunger or insufficiently warmed bodies?"

If we forget the heart appeal these children make to us and look coldly at the situation as a proposition of selfish benefit to ourselves we shall see, when we have proper perspective, that it would be economically profitable for the community, state or nation to so organize the production and distribution of goods that every adult who was willing to work and earn and every child, regardless of his family, might receive enough to buy at least the minimum satisfactions of life. This arrangement would reduce our alarming output of criminals thus saving taxpayers, in the long run, far more than it would cost. Education would become more nearly universal thus making full use of our costly educational institutions and administrations. Disease could be brought under control because all would have means to secure proper and wise medical treatment. The health of a community can never be better than the health of the less fortunate. The money society pays now, in a spasmodic and unscientific way, for charity would become a real help instead of a partial help and a partial curse. Numberless other illustrations could be added to show that a proper system of economics would be for the benefit not only of the unfortunately poor but also for those who are in the economic upper classes.

These meditations always creep into our minds as we approach the happy season for celebrating the coming of him who said, "Do unto others as ye would have them do unto you."

At The Churches

C. M. Coalson, Minister

Life and growth have always been inseparable in this world. Whenever any living thing ceases to grow it dies. A casual study of biology will bear out this statement. Well, in the spiritual world it is the same. Spiritual fervor can not live at any one point of its development for it must increase or die. It is not wonderful that our Maker has written into the nature of man that he cannot become static and live? It is therefore in defense of life itself that I am asking this morning that we shall never cease to grow in grace and the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Companionship. I have found, in the life of human growth, one of the latest of human growth. We increase in spiritual stature not so much by living to ourselves alone but by touching other lives and receiving from them what they have to contribute. Whether we will or no we are a part of all whom we have met. The Bible recognizes this fact by its injunction: "Forasmuch as the assembling of yourselves together," Jesus and the disciples were on the go all the time seeking people with whom they could associate. They wanted help from these people as well as the privilege of helping them.

Study is an aid to growth and so is real work. We shall follow out these suggestions Sunday morning. Come with us.

Sunday evening the choir and mens' chorus, directed by Mrs. J. G. Moore, organized, will render the annual program of Christmas music. This is always an inspiring and helpful service. You are invited to attend.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE

The Methodist Church will observe the Christmas season Sunday, December 12th, 7:30 P. M., by means of a Christmas Service. It is hoped that a goodly number will meet with us as we endeavor to prepare our hearts and minds to enjoy the season that approaches us.

The program follows:
Medley of Christmas Songs (Organ Voluntary)—Mrs. Z. S. Henderson.
—Came Upon the Midnight Clear—Congregation.
Prayer—
The Christmas Story (Anthem)—Choir.

Responsive Reading—
Star of Bethlehem (duet) Mess-rames Dean and Henderson.
Song of Gladness (organ offertory)—Mrs. R. J. Holland.
A Christmas Song (vocal solo)—Miss Eleanor Moses.
Pastor's Christmas Message.
Silent Night.
Benediction.

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION
FROM BILLY HAGINS

Editor of the Herald:
Please allow me, Mr. Editor, to express my deep gratitude and that of my family to all who have been so kind and good to me during my long illness and especially in the days of my recent convalescence in the hospital.

I wish especially to thank: Col. An Mrs. Homer Parker for their unceasing interest in me and for arranging the bi-thirty party while I was in the Statesboro hospital. These good friends have never failed to do good and everything they could for my recovery and pleasure. I am grateful to them.

The management of the hospital was so kind to me that I can never forget. I am grateful to Miss Zitter and her assistants for their services and kindness. The physicians too did their best and I am grateful to them for their kind and pleasant as it could possibly be under the circumstances.

My parents and whole family join me in this expression of gratitude to the neighbors and friends, all of who have been as kind helpful and sympathetic as they could possibly have been. We are indebted to them and hereby extend to them our deepest gratitude.

It is the belief of this patient that one of the best things our county ever did was when it built the Statesboro hospital and placed it under the present management.

objectives of the various departments of the church. Alfred Dorman, chairman of the Trustees, responded for both Trustees and Stewards. Dr. J. E. Carruth spoke from the Educational Department, Mrs. J. O. Johnston represented the Woman's Missionary Society. Miss Mary Ogan spoke earnestly in behalf of the Young People's Work through the Epworth League. Hinton Booth read a portion of a letter from Mrs. Mamie Hall Porritt re: living conditions in China. Rev. N. H. Williams, pastor of the church, presided in the concluding message, pleaded for Christian Fellowship in his congregation.

The Social Committee of the church with Mrs. Arthur Howard as chairman served hot tea and crackers.

These Church Night programs will be a regular event in the future.

ANNOUNCEMENT
PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

V. F. Ahan, Pastor
While it is always a joy to the true saints of God to meet in the exercises of public worship in the name of the Lord Jesus, it is a special joy to so meet together in this month when special memory of His coming is observed in the national and international celebration of the date of his birth on earth; and if angels were happy to come to earth and sing, "Peace on earth, good will toward men," at His birth, truly sinners saved from sin and hell to the joys of righteousness and heaven should rejoice to praise His name in the happy celebration of His coming.

We urge every member, and we kindly invite friends and visitors to meet with us in our regular services through this week end.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED DORMAN
HOSTS AT EVENING BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dorman were hosts on Thursday evening at a delightful bridge-dinner. The lovely home was decorated throughout with burnished tatum leaves, yellow chrysanthemums, and paper-white narcissi. Quaint place cards with the names written in Chinese script marked the places. Dinner was served in three courses.

In the bridge game that followed, Mrs. Hugh Arundel won high score and received a coin purse. Mrs. Gilbert Cone was awarded individual powder puffs for low score. Mrs. Simon's gift to the honoree was a novelty heart broom.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Pittman, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Foy, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Smith, Mrs. Hal Kennon, and Mrs. Grover Brannen.

MRS. PASCHAL FETED AT LOVELY PARTIES

The guests included Mrs. Shelton Paschall, Mrs. Edwin Groover, Mrs. Waldo Floyd, Mrs. C. E. Wollett, Mrs. J. P. Foy, Mrs. Everett Williams, Mrs. Gilbert Cone, Mrs. Lawrence Brannen and Mrs. Grady Hulsey, Metter; Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Hugh Arundel, Mrs. Walter McDougal, Mrs. Sam Franklin, Mrs. Howland, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Bruce Olliff and Mrs. Inman Foy assisted the hostess in entertaining.

DANCE PRIZE

Claudia Hodges continues to win prizes for her graceful and original dance numbers. At an entertainment at the Oriental inn, Mrs. Hodges won the prize for best dancer. She was awarded the first prize in dancing.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO ENTERTAIN WITH CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Yule Tide season is one of joy and cheer, and the members of the Woman's Club are making plans to do their part toward making the approaching season cheerful and joyous for a group of women who have spent years in enriching life for others in Statesboro.

On Friday, December 17th, the Woman's Club will entertain with a Christmas Party, every woman in Statesboro who is 65 years old or older. The party will be at the Woman's Club Home between the hours of three and four o'clock. An excellent musical program has been planned and Mrs. R. L. Cone, president of that organization, announces that there will be a Christmas tree and gifts for everyone, and if Santa Claus is not too busy in his preparation for Christmas Eve he will be there smiling his approval on the party.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Gordon Mays delightfully entertained the members of the mystery Club and a few others at her home on Governor Avenue. A profusion of red berries and white narcissi gave a festive air to the lovely home.

For club high, Mrs. Roger Holland received a gaily decorated novelty box; Mrs. Harry Smith received a similar prize for visitor's high. Mrs. W. H. Blitch won cut, a pair of framed pictures in harmonizing designs.

At the conclusion of the games the hostess served a delicious salad course and Russian tea.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS TO BE SUNG BY MASSED CHOIR

The Bulloch County Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Julian C. Lane on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. T. Smith, Mrs. Jim Barnan, Mrs. Joe Tillman, Mrs. A. Brunsen, and Mrs. Frank Smith were the hostesses with Mrs. C. E. Cone, president, presiding over the business session after which a brief program was enjoyed.

Swann Brannen gave a song and dance and Patty Banks gave a Christmas reading. Light refreshments were served.

MARY DELL SHUMAN
CELEBRATES TENTH

Mary Dell Shuman observed her tenth birthday on Tuesday afternoon with a lovely party at her home on Savannah Avenue. About thirty-five of her friends were present to celebrate the happy event with her. The guests played bingo, and in a blind fold contest attempted to pin a star to the top of a Christmas tree. Billy Holland and Mary Frances Murphy made the highest scores in bingo and they were awarded each a pound of chocolate silver tips. Billy Johnson was more adept in the blind fold contest and won the prize.

Daintily iced cakes and punch served. Mrs. Shuman was assisted in serving by Mrs. Sam Northcutt, Eloise Northcutt, and Mrs. L. J. Shuman, Jr.

December was ushered in with some unusual social events that preface a holiday season of cheer and festivity. Clara Leck Paschal, daughter from Columbia and visiting Brooks Grimes, Willie Groover, Louise Simmons and all of her old friends, in parting dividing her time, has been the central figure of several social affairs. It was rather a coincidence that the very day she came down Walter and Isabel McDougal and Frank and Louise Simmons were driving up to see her and they passed one another on the highway.

Willie Dorman had an unusual party Thursday evening. The guests played Chinese bridge. In the process of the game the bid was made on your partners hand instead of your own. Those making low progressed. Everything was reversed from the usual procedure, and the hilarity that accompanied the games indicated that the Oriental innovation must have been most amusing.

The group that went over to the Community House had the privilege of hearing Earl DeLoach sing a group of songs. Earl DeLoach, who you know, is Sudie Zetter's nephew, and he has a voice that should have melted some girl's heart. He was married, and he has a lovely blonde who stays with me. We live in perfect harmony, no domestic rifts. There's just when one listens turned a brick red, he produced 'her picture a lovely white Persian kitty! I still maintain that if he had twanged a guitar and sang "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold" on Sunday nights in some girl's parlor, he couldn't have escaped.

PRUELLA CROMARTIE
OBSERVES BIRTHDAY WITH EVENING PARTY

Our sub-deb society experienced a thrill when Prueella Cromartie's mother let her have her birthday party at night. Prueella's birthday was on Saturday, December 4, but the party was on Friday night. About forty-five of her friends were invited. A varied program of entertainment made the evening a merry one. In the turkey and bag-blowing contests, Jack Averitt and Sara Alice Bradley were the winners and were given boxes of candy. Later in the evening there was dancing with Jack Averitt furnishing the music. All of the young ladies were most properly gowned in evening dresses and handled their evening bags and long skirts with practiced skill. The lovely young honoree wore a floor length bright red dress.

The Christmas season was recognized in the use of holly and evergreens throughout the home. The birthday cake also emphasized the Christmas as colors with its red and green decorations. Mrs. Cromartie assisted by Miss Nelle Jones and Miss Hatlie Powell served a delightful full salad course.

TREASURE SEEKERS HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Members of the Treasure Seekers Class of the Methodist Church will meet in the social room of the church on Friday afternoon for their annual Christmas party. Every member is bringing a gift for a child, and these gifts will be distributed among the poor of the city.

Serving as hostesses for the occasion are Miss Jimmie Renfro, chairman, Mrs. L. H. Young, Mrs. Archie Barrow, Mrs. Z. Whitburn, and Mrs. Dave Kennedy. The meeting will be at four o'clock and every member is urged to be present. Mrs. M. S. Pittman and Mrs. Waldo Floyd have arranged a program of music and fun.

Children and Mrs. Remer Brady, and children spent Sunday in Macon. Mrs. Roy Green and her mother, Mrs. Barnett were visitors in Savannah Wednesday.

Mrs. B. A. Aldred has returned from Jacksonville where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Ralph McRae. Mrs. E. M. Mount chaperoned a group of high school students who went to Savannah Wednesday for the purpose of getting ads for the annual. In the group were George Hitt, Robert Hodges, Lenora Whiteside, Betty Smith and Annette Coalson.

Mrs. C. P. Olliff, Mrs. J. C. Lane, and Mrs. Frank Grimes spent Friday in Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hollingsworth of Savannah spent Wednesday and Thursday with Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Lane.

Mrs. E. A. Aldred and daughter, Louise, will spend the week end with friends in Augusta.

Judge Leroy Cowart of Atlanta, was here for a few days this week. Mrs. Shelton Paschal returned Monday to her home in Columbia, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cone and daughter, Betty Jean have returned from a visit to Fitzgerald where they went to see Mrs. Cone's father, Mr. J. W. McLane who has been quite ill.

Bill Cone has been transferred to Goodwater, Ala., where he will be connected with the Williams Construction Company.

Mrs. Clyde Hollingsworth and son, Hannel of Savannah, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brannen.

Mrs. Leila Wright of Atlanta spent several days this week as the guest of Miss Jimmie Renfro.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schetz of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, are here on a visit to Mrs. Schetz's sister, Mrs. T. W. Rowe.

FROM HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY
MRS. ELTON CLIFTON RESIGNS

Supt. H. H. Britt accepted the resignation of Mrs. Elton Clifton as a teacher in the High School department, a few days ago.

Mrs. Letty Lee Atkins came Monday morning to fill her place. Mrs. Atkins comes to us highly recommended, and has impressed very much those that have met her. We are glad to welcome her into our circle. Mrs. Clifton will join her husband, Elton Clifton, in Savannah where he has a very prominent position with a fertilizer firm. Mrs. Clifton plans to visit her mother in Boston, Mass., during the Christmas holidays.

FOURTH GRADE ENTERTAINED

Last Friday afternoon the fourth grade was delightfully entertained by their Grade Mothers, Mrs. C. D. Rushing, Jr., and Mrs. H. H. Britt. Because of illness in the family Mrs. Rushing was absent. This occasion was in the form of an Amateur program. The little pupils entered the contest that was most attractive for them. Francis Britt won the first prize in the singing contest. Louise Anderson won second prize. Mary Dean Rushing took the first prize in the reading contest with a close follow-up by Francis Britt.

Ramon NeSmith was the happy winner of the first prize in the story-telling contest with Jeanie Frances Sheffield, second.

G. C. AVERY TO DISCUSS BLUE
MOLD CONTROL

Last Thursday night Mr. G. C. Avery the vocational teacher, held an open discussion with the tobacco growers of this section to discuss the location of tobacco beds and methods of Blue Mold control.

At this meeting the question of building expansion was taken up. Supt. H. H. Britt, Dr. C. E. Stapleton and Mr. Avery explained that a larger building is being planned and a work shop and two new classrooms will be added to the school. Several of the citizens of the community have already offered their services and have given trees for the construction of these buildings.

Georgia Farm Income
Likely Less In 1938

Georgia farmers were advised this week by the annual outlook report of the Agricultural Extension Service that the outlook for 1938 is not as bright as that for 1937.

The report described the cotton situation as "serious" and recommended a crop of 10 to 12 million bales for 1938 as one likely to result in the largest net returns. It estimated that a 10 per cent reduction in flue-cured tobacco acreage will be necessary for the belt as a whole "if prices in 1938 are to equal those obtained in 1937." Peanut prices in 1938, the report said, will depend in part "on how far the government is willing to go in subsidizing the surplus which cannot be taken by cleaners and shellers."

Hogs, beef cattle, dairying, poultry and peaches are some of the commodities for which the outlook is described as comparatively favorable for 1938.

The desirability of Georgia farmers planning to live-at-home in 1938 is emphasized throughout the report. This emphasis is summed up in this keynote statement:

"In view of expected lower prices for most products which farmers will have to sell, and higher prices for the things which must be purchased, it is highly important that Georgia farmers in 1938 make a special effort to produce an adequate supply of food and feed for home use."

Director Walter S. Brown, of the Extension Service, said the information contained in the report is "of-fered in an attempt to present facts which may be helpful to Georgia farmers in making their plans for 1938."

"Adjustments in state and national agricultural policies have been rapid in recent years," Director Brown said. "These adjustments have been made possible by the co-operation of individual farmers. It is important that Georgia farmers know the facts that make these adjustments necessary."

With this knowledge, Georgia farmers are in a position to make intelligent adjustments on their own farms. These local, individual adjustments to the formulation of sound state and national agricultural policies.

The report, after noting that the world supply of cotton for the 1977-38 season is expected to be the largest in history, concludes that "American cotton producers will be faced in 1938 with the most serious situation with respect to the supply and demand for cotton that has existed since 1932."

"In view of this fact," the report said, "every reasonable effort should be made by Georgia farmers to pitch the 1938 crop on a basis which will result in the largest net returns to growers."

"Present indications are that a crop of between 10 and 12 million bales will result in largest returns. A crop of this size would add nothing to the price-depressing surplus which already exists, and would be sufficient to prevent any further loss in the competitive position of American cotton in foreign markets."

The outlook said that present prospects "indicate that a reduction in the acreage of flue-cured tobacco of about 10 per cent in 1938 from the harvested acreage in 1937, will be necessary to produce a surplus which can be sold at a profit."

FARM BRIEFS
By WHITNEY THARIN

Uncle Jim Says

Increasing the acreage in meadow crops, pastures, and trees, aids in the increase of desirable game and song birds in Georgia.

By Whitney Tharin, Extension Editor

Back from Chicago to their Georgia homes this week came 19 happy boys and girls who now number among their thrilling experiences a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress. Travel in itself can be a liberal education for lots of folks. These youngsters learned a lot by just visiting Chicago. But they learned a great deal more by being able to attend the 4-H Club Congress, which was held in connection with the International Livestock Show. The things they saw and the things they learned will be shared through conversation and reports by their relatives, friends, schoolmates and the 4-H Club members who stayed at home.

The educational trips for Georgia 4-H Club members were made possible each year by various large concerns that are road-minded enough to realize that unless agriculture prospers they cannot prosper. These concerns figure that if they can help 4-H Club boys and girls learn better methods of farming and home-making, the youngsters, in turn, will produce more and earn more, which will enable them to spend more for the things the firms have to sell. It's a good philosophy, because in an agricultural state like Georgia the prosperity of every citizen is dependent, directly or indirectly, on the prosperity of the farmer. That's the main reason why railroads, fertilizer companies, department stores, mail order houses, packing houses, farm implement manufacturers, and numerous others provide prize money and trips for 4-H Club members. Of course, they build good will for their firms and some of them get a little free publicity out of it, but the main purpose is to advance Georgia's agriculture so that the state's farmers and the firms they do business with will prosper through the use of better farming methods.

For the first time in several years farmers are now repaying the Federal Land Bank with principal money less than the amount of new loans, according to F. F. Hill, deputy governor of the Farm Credit Administration. Repayments exceeded new loans by more than $1,350,000 during September.

"Many farmers have used surplus money to retire their loans more rapidly than required and so far this year about 10,000 have repaid their land bank loans in full," Hill said. "The majority of farmers with land bank loans have their finances in better shape than at any time since the depression began—many in far better shape."

One of the best explanations of the objectives of the new land-use program is contained in an article by Secretary Wallace in the current issue of the Agricultural Situation, a monthly publication of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The article deals with the program authorized by Title III of the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act.

In the article the Secretary declares that co-operation between federal and state governments is necessary if the land-use program is to be effective. The act specifically directs the Secretary of Agriculture "to develop a program of land conservation and land utilization, including the retirement of lands which are sub-marginal or not primarily suitable for cultivation."

Speaking of articles, A. G. Swint, of Orchard Hill, has an excellent account in the September issue of the Manufacturers Record of the history of the one-variety cotton movement in this section. Mr. Swint operates the one-variety gin at Orchard Hill and his interest in the movement is largely responsible for the fact that Orchard Hill today is one of the best known one-variety communities in the South. The one-variety program, Mr. Swint points out in his article, was a big factor in bringing Orchard Hill through the depression in fine shape.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

There came to my attention recently a copy of your paper in which there is an editorial regarding 4-H Club work. I wish to thank you for this most splendid editorial. It is one of the very best that I have seen on the subject. You will be interested to know that in Georgia we have nearly 65,000 4-H Club members, and I am glad to say that in Bulloch county there is one of the best memberships of any county in the state, and the accomplishments of 4-H Club work in that county have been most inspiring.

You will be further interested to know what 4-H Club members do. In 1936 they produced products valued at $1,813,096.57. One thing that impresses me very greatly with reference to 4-H Club work is that it gives equal opportunity to boys and girls, whether rich or poor. This is demonstrated and proven by the fact that the only time the national trophy for outstanding leadership in the United States was brought to Georgia was by Nelle Appling, a Fulton county 4-H Club girl, the daughter of a widow who was on relief. And everywhere all over the state, we have first prize winners in 4-H Club work coming from the ranks of tenant farmer boys and girls in about the same ratio as the population of this group bears to the whole number of farm boys and girls.

Again I wish to thank you for your great interest and commendation. With best wishes, I am

Unfolding

Georgia's Story to the World

Georgia's past attainments, her present possessions and her future possibilities are being published to all quarters of the globe—thanks to the enthusiastic interest of thousands of patriotic Georgians in all sections of the state.

A short time ago we announced that we had prepared eight booklets* on Georgia. We offered them, first, to you and all Georgians, for your own use—and added that we would mail them to your personal friends and business acquaintances in other states and countries as you requested it. We already have mailed the booklets by the thousands—the demand has been so amazing we were forced to reprint them in large numbers—and the requests still are pouring into our office.

These booklets have been mailed, at your request, to every state in the union. They have been sent, by individual request, to Canada, the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippine Islands, Canal Zone, Mexico, France, Germany, Holland, Scotland, Australia, Korea, Bolivia and Colombia.

ONCE MORE—WE REPEAT THE OFFER!

We want you to see these booklets and read them—first. And we want to mail them to others in other states as you request it. All you have to do is send us your own name or the names of people of your acquaintance in other states; people who will be interested in what Georgia has to offer. We will do the rest. You are put to no expense, no obligation. Check the list of subjects below; see if you haven't friends or business associates in other sections to whom these booklets might appeal.

* (1) Interesting Facts About Georgia; (2) Sports and Recreation in Georgia; (3) Agriculture in Georgia; (4) Education in Georgia; (5) Paper and Pulp Manufacturing and Opportunities in Georgia; (6) Power and Industrial Growth in Georgia; (7) Textile Manufacturing in Georgia; (8) Commerce and Mineral Resources of Georgia.

This offer holds good—as long as our supply of booklets holds out!

Dr. B.A. Deal Gives Information On How To Deal With Rabies

MEMBER OF COUNTY UNIT OF STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT MAKES STATEMENT GIVING INFORMATION AND FACTS ABOUT RABIES.

In a statement made Tuesday of this week by Dr. B. A. Deal, member of the county unit of the State Health Department, information is given as to what to do in dealing with animals known to be rabid.

Dr. Deal's statement is as follows: "Due to the fact that there seems to be an epidemic of rabies in Bulloch county, this information seems necessary and especially so, since there is no curative treatment. It is purely preventative.

"In all cases where the animal is known to be rabid or when it cannot be identified and examined, the person bitten should receive the Pasteur treatment promptly. More urgent, of the wounds are on the hands or the head. Any biting animal should be suspected of being rabid until proven otherwise.

"An animal that cannot be confined and observed should be regarded as rabid.

"The biting animal should never be killed unless to protect others, until the diagnosis can be confirmed or excluded by observation while alive. This is especially true because of the fact that it is not always possible, microscopically to find evidence of rabies in the early stage of the disease. Never shoot an animal in the head which is suspected of being rabid. The saliva of an animal is infectious six days before the appearance of symptoms.

"All dogs should be immunized but as this is to a large degree experimental all untested dogs should be destroyed and the others should be immunized and muzzled.

"Any person having been bitten or otherwise come in contact with an animal suspected of having rabies should report to their family physician immediately for his advice."

L. Hodges, Janice Arundel, Miriam Lanier, Martha Evelyn Hodges, Effie Waters, Martha Covart, and Helen Rouse. Joyce Smith and Robert Lanier will present a short skit entitled, "Helen, William, and Every thing." Robert Hodges will give a song specialty and the final number on the program will be a farcical comedy, "The Woman Who Understood Men" with the following cast: Margaret Anne Johnston, Anne Elizabeth Smith, Robert Hodges, Margaret Brown, and W. R. Lovett.

By Secretary Wallace it was learned that Bulloch county will be eligible to participate during the current fiscal year in the tenant farm purchase loan program, provided under title 1 of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, which was passed by Congress last spring.

Bulloch is one of the 35 Georgia counties which are eligible to participate.

Under the terms of the Act, $835,000 was allocated to Georgia for making tenant purchase loans. The 35 counties were selected by the Secretary upon recommendation of the State Farm Security Advisory committee. They were chosen on the basis of farm population, prevalence of tenancy, availability of good land, and a consideration of soil types most adaptable to the purpose of the program.

The applicant must have a dependent family, and must either make a down payment or own livestock and farm implements equivalent to a down payment. He must also have been able to obtain a loan for the purchase of a farm from other sources.

E.C.I And Claxton To Determine 1st Dist. Title Today

Last Friday night on the Municipal Playground football field, Claxton High School and E. C. I. battled to a 6-6 tie for the championship of the First District. The game was witnessed by a large crowd of people considering the exceedingly cold weather that prevailed.

Since the game ended in a tie and the championship has not been settled the two teams will again play here this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The game will be played on the College gridiron instead of the Municipal field. It should be a much more interesting game this afternoon than the one last Friday night. This will be the third time that the two teams have met this season. And that is something close to record for this year or any other year.

Claxton outplayed the much heavier Bulldogs from Emanuel County Institute in Friday night's fray. They made nine first downs to E. C. I.'s four and they gained considerable more yardage than the E. C. I. boys. Although Claxton was penalized more than E. C. I. and they lost more yards from scrimmage.

The first half was rather slow and neither team seemed to show any ground gaining ability. Claxton threatened seriously in the first half only to lose the ball on the one yard line on downs. This was the only scoring threat made by either team.

But in the second half both squads opened fire with both barrels and from here on out every possible thing that the rule book would allow. Both teams threatened on occasions but each more could be done. The last half was featured by several long runs. One being made by Toole for 10 yards and a touchdown and the other on the kick-off for sixty five yards and a touchdown. Late in the fourth period, an E. C. I. player seemed certain for glory only to be caught from behind by a Claxton player on the 10 yard line.

Williams; and Postlude by Mrs. E. L. Barnes.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

"It is the Christmas time: And up and down 'twixt heaven and earth In the glorious grief and solemn mirth, The shining angels climb."

Now nears that blessed time of year when the shining angels of human sympathy and human generosity form a span from the hearts of earth to the very gates of heaven. Christmas, the season when, more truly than at any other time, human kind takes thought to the things unseen and practices those precepts of stewardship taught by that Christ whose birthday it is we honor.

Christmas, when all those who have eyes to see, ears to hear and hearts to understand, realize anew the eternal verity of these words, "Even as ye do unto one of these, My little ones, ye do unto Me."

Christmas is, pre-eminently, the time for happy childhood. In the shining eyes of children on the Christmas morn, as they laugh and exclaim over the magic gifts from Santa Claus, is to be seen earth's truest reflection of the glory that awaits beside the throne of God.

Schedule Announced For Vaccinating Dogs By The County Agent

COUNTY AGENT URGES ALL DOG OWNERS WHO HAVE NOT HAD DOGS VACCINATED TO DO SO SATURDAY, DECEMBER 18.

Bryon Dyer, county agent, stated this week that dog owners wishing to cooperate in helping check the present epidemic of rabies in the county, may do so by having their dogs vaccinated. He announced that dogs may be vaccinated at any one of 12 points in the county Saturday, December 18.

The places and times as announced by Mr. Dyer are as follows: Ogechee school and Lee Hugh Higgins at 8 o'clock a. m., Middle Ground and Nevils schools at 9 a. m.; Port and Eska schools at 10 a. m.; West Side and Stilson schools at 11 noon; Register and Brooklet schools at 12 noon, and at the county agent's office in Statesboro all day.

The county agent urges every dog owner to have his dogs at the place nearest him on time, in order for the county to be completely covered in the time announced it will be necessary that the representatives from the county agent's office move from place to place according to a definite schedule. By having the dogs at the appointed place and time dog owners will be assured of getting their dogs vaccinated.

The vaccine to be used will immunize the dog for about one year and will cost the owners about 20 cents per dog.

STATESBORO SCHOOLS CLOSE TODAY WILL REOPEN JAN. 3

Superintendent C. E. Weller of the Statesboro schools announced this week that the schools would close today at 1:00 o'clock for the Christmas holidays. They will reopen on Monday, January 3, 1938.

Seven Months Old Child Dies Of Burns

BLANKET CATCHES FIRE FROM SPARK FROM FIREPLACE AS CHILD WAS LEFT ALONE FOR A FEW MINUTES.

Little Joseph Elmer Yarborough, seven months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Yarborough, who live two miles south of Statesboro on the Glenn Bland farm, was burned to death Monday when the blanket on which the child was sleeping, caught fire.

Mrs. Yarborough left the baby in the room for a few minutes with an older sister. The baby was asleep on a crib upon where were several blankets. A spark from an open fireplace fell on a blanket. When the mother returned the baby was badly burned and lived only a few minutes.

Funeral services were held from Fellowship Church, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock with interment in the church cemetery. Besides his parents the child is survived by one sister, Doris Yarborough.

NOTICE

Members of Lower Lotts Creek and all parties interested will meet on Tuesday, December 21st, to clean off the cemetery.

Judge J. L. Renfro Presides At His Last Session Of City Court

JUDGE RENFROE APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR RIVERS TO FILL UNEXPIRED TERM OF JUDGE LEROY COWART.

Judge J. L. Renfro presided at his second and last session of the City Court of Statesboro under an appointment from Governor Rivers here Monday. The one day session handled many criminal matters.

When Judge Leroy Cowart was appointed chief disbursing officer of the Georgia National Guards last October the Governor appointed Major J. E. Renfro to serve until a special election December 8 and Liston G. Lanier was elected Judge over Judge Renfro and D. C. Jones in a three cornered race. Lanier had not received his commission in time to serve at the December term, but it is understood he will be on the bench at the January term. Judge Renfro served at the November and December terms.

Santa Claus To Fly Here In Plane

This is the first time that Santa Claus has ever come to Statesboro in an airplane and it is expected that he will be met by host of his little friends of Statesboro and Bulloch county.

After he lands he will be brought into town by automobile. His visit here is made possible by Lannie S. Simmons, H. Minkovitz & Sons Department Store, The Sea Island Bank Oliff and Smith and Hodges Service Station. These business firms have cooperated in bringing him here. He will spend a short time with each of these business firms, his last visit being with H. Minkovitz and Sons. He will visit their Toyland on the third floor of their building.

200 BULLOCH COUNTY TOBACCO GROWERS AT MEET ON BLUE MOLD

H. H. TRUE RECOMMENDS SPRAYING BEFORE DISEASE HITS BEDS AND GIVES WAYS AND MEANS OF APPLYING SPRAY.

Blue mold control demonstrations held last week were attended by some 200 Bulloch tobacco growers that grow about 2,000 acres of weed, indications that a serious effort will be made in the county to control the disease in 1938.

H. H. True, following information from the Coastal Plains Experiment Station recommended that spraying begin before the disease hits the beds or when it is heard of in the community. Spraying should start at the rate of about 2 to 3 gallons of the mixture when the plants are very small to about 7 to 8 gallons per 100 yards when the plants are about ready to set.

The formula recommended was 2 ounces of red cuprous oxide, 1-2 pint lehruse spreader, 1 pint of cottonseed oil and water to make up to 12 1-2 gallons.

If more material is needed Mr. True recommended that the formula be increased in the same ratio.

The spray should be applied about twice a week during warm weather but when the weather is cold and the plants are not growing very fast once per week or ten days is advisable. This spray would cost about $3 per 100 yards for the entire season, which is pointed out is cheaper than the method of planning extra beds as now practiced to insure ample plants.

Any type of pump that will give about 100 pounds or more pressure is satisfactory to apply the material. Mr. True warned that sprinkling was not satisfactory in that the particles of the spray were not broken up enough to avoid damage from the material.

Farmers planning on using the spray are urged not to attempt to mix the materials until they have disassembled the mixing demonstrations or caused the matter with someone that possessed full information relative to mixing.

December Meeting Of AAUW Held Tuesday
